

I'm writing to let you know that I believe that auto makers should be mandated to make seatbelts large enough to fit everyone. Safety is very important to me and my family !